Thanks for sending this. I'm always happy to help out where I can. Apologies I missed the first meeting of the year I was away on a team building event. I hope to come along to the others if I can. Karen x

Be good to have a general update on who's who etc and a regular newsletter to inform of what is:has happened, how successful it is/was and what money raised/how it's being spent. Communication is key and welcomed by all parents.

I struggle to organise working four days a week and with my outside Parish Council/Chris of Friends Group roles, but am happy to help with events on the night/day, if needed.

I am happy to.helo.whrn I can but historically I haven't been able to help as I usually have a younger sibling.with me. I prefer the idea of a mother's/father's Day wrap a gift, as we tend to do things as a family on the mother's/father's Day weekend.

I think could increase knowledge of easy fund raiser. By keep rain sing awareness. Atleast every half term. Texts/emails/Facebook especially coming up to Xmas

What about a "helping hands" e mail list of parents who are willing to help out. They can be e mailed before an event and asked if they can help run/help out

A lot of work to set up but both Infants and juniors need to think about setting up an Alumni community to spread income generation beyond families who have children attending school and look at past pupils. We have Banarama to draw upon and other famous pupils.
