NOTES TO S-ELF

You can complete the Painswick Naughty Elf Trail in any order, at any time between 18-23 December – all in one go, or in chunks if you'd rather. We highly recommend walking the trail in daylight (or make sure you have a torch) as some roads on the route do not have pavements and are not well lit. Painswick is hilly, so wear appropriate footwear and consider a pushchair for little ones.

Our apologies (and huge thanks) to all the homes and businesses that have been invaded by naughty elves this week!
Special Thanks to our competition winners Lyra and Billy who have provided this years artwork!
