

TCSED take a walk from Southwark to the Sea.

What?

A one day walk every year, overall covering the route from Tower Bridge to The London Stone at All Hallows in Kent

Where?

Along the Thames Path, the Thames Path extension and the Saxon Way, following the Thames from London to the Sea

When?

11/09/2021: Fifth (penultimate) leg:

Cliffe to High Halstow

Meet at 10:30 at The Six Bells, Cliffe

A ten mile walk from Cliffe back to the Thames estuary, along the Saxon Shore Way, and then inland to High Halstow.

Liftshare recommended as public transport is sparse.

Denmark Hill 08.52 to Rochester 09.39 then bus to Cliffe 09.52. Taxi back from High Halstow to Rochester. From Rochester train 18:23 arriving back at Denmark Hill 19:19.

Who?

Anyone who'd like to join us: Families, staff, governors, and friends of TCSED all welcome.

Why?

The London Stone marks the end of the Thames and the beginning of the sea.

We can make a journey together from our home borough of Southwark to the sea (estuary) at All Hallows, symbolising the journey to adulthood that our children will be making.

Walking together with a common purpose is a great way to strengthen a community. It's an accessible, enjoyable and purposeful way of spending time outdoors with friends old and new. It builds resilience and it's an adventure!

It will help us to understand the importance of the Thames to London and see parts of the river we never otherwise would. This year's walk takes in Egypt Bay famous as the home of the convict hulks in Dicken's "Great Expectations", and leads us through two bird sanctuaries.
